A majority of the members of the Society are old-time members of the Internation Brigades, and Prague is said to be the center of Communist efforts in Central Europe to make use of these ex-combatants in work for Spain. 5. The Society has shifted its main interest from Spain to Greece, and Czech Communists are now collecting money and organizing public meetings for the partisans fighting the Athens government. Subscriptions for Spain are less numerous. On 14 April 1947, the enniversary of the Spanish Republic, there was a meeting at which attendance was much less than usual for the occasion. Several of the speakers, among them Mr. Masaryk, failed to come. 6. Linked with the Society of Friends of Republican Spain is the Czechoslovakia.—Latin America Society, which is being organized now. Six months ago the Ambassador of the Spanish Republic had a meeting with the directors of the Society of Friends of Republican Spain and spoke of the money that had been collected. He seems to have shown very little tact, and at the present time negotiations are at a dead point. Signatures of the representative of three of the four parties are needed in order to draw the money from the bank but the Spanish diplomatic mission has made no further move to secure them. 4.
